

Responsible Fertilizer Use

Did you know?

- Over-applying fertilizer can damage your plants.
- Excess fertilizer can contaminate groundwater and coastal systems and harm the environment.

Recommended Best Management Practices:

- Do not apply during the wet season (Nov - March).
- For most fertilizers, do not exceed 0.5 lbs/1,000 ft².
- Avoid application near areas where waste water can runoff, such as gutters and flood channels.

To learn more, please refer to:

<https://scholarspace.manoa.hawaii.edu/handle/10125/45367>